

Effective April 20, 2016

MA Center currently safeguards the privacy of providers of Personal Information (as the term is defined below) in accordance with this Privacy Policy with respect to this website list.ammagroups.org and under sub-domains (the “Website”). Please read the following policy to understand the rules and procedures followed by MA Center in handling Personal information provided to us whether over the Internet or otherwise.

What information does MA Center collect?

MA Center collects the Personal information only from persons who contact us or otherwise provide the information to us, or that is collected by various affiliated Amma organizations (satsangs and centers). As you navigate the Website, we may also collect information through the use of commonly-used information-gathering tools, such as cookies and web beacons. “Personal Information” means your name, telephone number, spiritual name, email address, postal address provided by you to MA Center whether through the Internet, mobile applications or any other form of communication.

How MA Center uses the Personal Information

We use your Personal information to respond to and fulfill your requests for products and services in connection with Amma, including, but not limited to:

1. Sending information about the activities relating to Amma, Amma’s disciples, satsangs, events and updates in the Amma community, MA Center and our projects. For example, MA Center may use information you provide to contact you to further discuss your interest in the services and to send you information regarding MA Center, its affiliates, and its partners, such as information about promotions or events.
2. Sending e-newsletters relating to the above specified list.

When we disclose Personal Information to others

1. MA Center does exchange Personal information with other affiliated Amma organizations (satsangs and centers) in the U.S. so that they can contact people on the mailing list about Amma programs and events.
2. Personal Information provided by you to MA Center is never shared with any non-affiliated commercial organizations and is never sold, rented or given to unrelated third parties.
3. MA Center will disclose Personal Information if required by law or if MA Center reasonably believes that use or disclosure is necessary to protect MA Center’s rights and/or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process.

Right to control and correct Personal information

Individuals who wish to receive information about MA Center activities via the E-newsletter should provide their name and email address to us. Individuals can change the information at any time by emailing us at admin@ammagroups.org or sign into this url (ammagroups.org). You may unsubscribe from the E-newsletter either by using the Unsubscribe link on the newsletters or by emailing us at admin@ammagroups.org.

How we protect your Personal information

1. MA Center uses SSL encryption for data being transmitted to MA Center. MA Center's database uses commercially available software protection program.
2. This site operates independently of MA Center. MA Center is not responsible for the privacy, terms of use or other policies of any other web site.

Amendment of Policy

MA Center reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy any time. No individual notice of such changes will be provided but they will appear on the website in the form of a revised and newly dated Privacy Policy. Our current policy was amended April 26, 2018.
